N81 Hollywood Cross to Tallaght Road Improvement Scheme Preferred Route Corridor-Public Consultation

Kildare County Council, on its own behalf and on behalf of Wicklow County Council and South Dublin County Council, in accordance with agreements under Section 85 of the Local Government Act 2001, are in the process of developing a Scheme to improve the N81 National Secondary Route between Hollywood Cross and Tallaght.

A public consultation into the Emerging Preferred Route Corridor held in October 2011, afforded the public and all other interested parties the opportunity to raise issues of concern and to contribute towards the selection of the Preferred Route Corridor. In addition, further studies were carried out and from this work the Preferred Route Corridor has been identified.

The public display of the Preferred Route Corridor will be held at the following locations:

Date	Venue	Time
Wednesday 22 February 2012	Poulaphouca House Hotel, Ballymore Eustace	1-8pm
Thursday 23 February 2012	Avon Rí Hotel, Blessington	1-8pm
Friday 24 February 2012	The Plaza Hotel, Tallaght	1-8pm

At the public display sessions members of the design team will be present to explain the work carried out to date. A questionnaire and a pre-paid envelope for return of the questionnaire will be available. The questionnaire will also be available on:
