The aim of this programme is to support wellbeing through the arts and within the context of local communities. Please note that as places are limited, preference will be given to those who don't have opportunity to participate in the arts due to health, financial, or social circumstances.

The Creative Well is an initiative of Kildare Arts in Health supported by HSE Kildare West Wicklow Mental Health Services, Kildare County Council Arts Service, HSE Health Promotion, Kildare County Mental Health Association and Kildare County Council Library Service.

Closing Date for Applications: Wednesday 29 August 2012
