PRIVACY STATEMENT

Who are we?

Kildare County Council (the Council) is the democratically elected unit of Local Government in County Kildare and is responsible for providing a range of services to meet the economic, social and cultural needs of the people of our County. In order to provide the most effective and targeted services to meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of County Kildare we will be required to collect, process and use certain types of information about people and organisations. Depending on the service being offered, information sought may include 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and may relate to current, past and future service users; past, current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with our staff. In addition, staff may be required, from time to time, to collect process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements or to carry out functions in the public interest.

Why do we have a Privacy Statement?

This privacy statement has been created to demonstrate the Council's commitment that personal data you may be required to supply to us is;

- Obtained lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Obtained for only specified, identified and legitimate purposes
- Processed for purposes which we have identified or purposes compatible with the purposes that we have identified.
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for purpose for which it was obtained
- Personal data collected and processed must be accurate and (where necessary) kept up to-date.
- Kept only for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- Processed in a manner that ensures the appropriate security of the personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing.

More detail is available in our Data Protection Policy Statement at <http://kildare.ie/CountyCouncil/DataProtection/> or you can request a hard copy at 045 980 200.

What is the activity referred to in this Privacy Statement?

The billing and collection of Commercial Rates.

What is the basis for making the processing of this personal data lawful?

Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in Kildare County Council in accordance with Article 6(1)(e) of the General Data Protection Regulation, 2016. Specifically the lawful basis for this process is the Poor Relief (Ireland) Act 1838 as amended and the Local Government Reform Act, 2014

We require contact details

In order to communicate with you, you will be asked for contact details. You do not have to provide all contact details but providing more, such as email, phone, address, makes it easier to communicate. Please note that to help protect your privacy, we take steps to verify your identity before granting access to personal data. These contact details may also be used to verify your identity.

What other types of personal data do we need to undertake this activity?

Name, address, Eircode, email address, phone number, bank account details, planning reference number, photographs and customer ID.

Including third party personal data in forms:

In cases where a person decides to submit the personal information of another person in their form, they should:

- Notify that person that they are providing their personal information to the Council and obtain their permission; OR
- Provide that person with a copy of this Privacy Statement;

What will happen if the personal data is not provided?

If the required personal data is not provided, there is a risk of inaccurate billing and an impediment to the Council's right to charge rates.

Under Section 32 of the Local Government Reforms Act, 2014, failure of the owner of a property to notify Kildare County Council of a transfer of ownership or tenancy will result in the owner being liable to 2 years of the outstanding rate due.

Am I the only source of this personal data?

In some instances to assist with the delivery of the activity or to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements, personal data is sourced from a third party.

The Commercial Rates Department of Kildare County Council may obtain information from the following bodies:

- The Valuation Office – to facilitate the valuation of your premises
- Solicitors – to facilitate recovery of debt or change of ownership
- Trusted third parties – including receivers, liquidators etc.
- Statutory, regulatory and law enforcement authorities, as required by law.

Is personal data submitted as part of this activity shared with other organisations?

The Council may, to fulfil statutory or regulatory obligations or in the public interest, from time to time, have to share personal data with other organisations or entities (in Ireland or abroad). Where this is required the Council shall have regard to your rights, to the security and integrity of the data and will minimise the data shared.

The Commercial Rates Department of Kildare County Council may share information with the following recipients:

- The Valuation Office – to facilitate the valuation of your premises
- Relevant bank – to facilitate a direct debit payment
- Solicitors – to facilitate recovery of debt
- Trusted third parties – including receivers, liquidators etc.
- Statutory, regulatory and law enforcement authorities, as required by law.

Data is not transferred to another country.

How long is my data kept for?

The Local Authority sector operates under a detailed record retention policy which outlines time periods for which your personal data will be retained and what will happen to it after the required retention period has expired. The National Record Retention Policy for Local Authority Records is available on the Council's website.

Do you need to update your records?
