Kildare County Council

Data Protection Act 2018 (as amended)

Privacy Statement for Fire Safety - Kildare Fire Service -

Who are we?

Kildare County Council (the Council) is the democratically elected unit of Local Government in County Kildare and is responsible for providing a range of services to meet the economic, social and cultural needs of the people of our County. In order to provide the most effective and targeted services to meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of County Kildare, we will be required to collect, process and use certain types of information about people and organisations. Depending on the service being offered, information sought may include 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and may relate to current, past and future service users; past, current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with our staff. In addition, staff may be required, from time to time, to collect process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements or to carry out functions in the public interest.

Why do we have a Privacy Statement?

This privacy statement has been created to demonstrate the Council's commitment that personal data you may be required to supply to us is;

- Obtained lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Obtained for only specified, identified and legitimate purposes
- Processed for purposes which we have identified or purposes compatible with the purposes that we have identified.
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purpose for which it was obtained
- Personal data collected and processed must be accurate and (where necessary) kept up to-date.
- Kept only for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- Processed in a manner that ensures the appropriate security of the personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing.

More detail is available in our Data Protection Policy Statement at <https://kildarecoco.ie/YourCouncil/GovernanceandCompliance/PrivacyStatement/> or you can request a hard copy at 045 980 200.

What is the basis for making the processing of this personal data lawful?

Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in Kildare County Council in accordance with Article 6(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, 2016. Specifically, the lawful basis for these processes are:

- Building Control Regulations 1997
- Fire Services Act 1981
- Licensing Acts 1833-2011
- Registration of Clubs Acts 1904-2008
- Intoxicating Liquor Act 2008
- Dangerous Substance Act 1972 and Regulations 2019
- Licensing of Indoor Events Act 2003
- Planning and Development Act, 2000
- Planning and Development (Licencing of Outdoor Events) Regulations 2001
- Local Government Act 2001

We require contact details

In order to communicate with you, you will be asked for contact details. You do not have to provide all contact details but providing more, such as email, phone, address, makes it easier to communicate. Please note that to help protect your privacy, we take steps to verify your identity before granting access to personal data. These contact details may also be used to verify your identity.

What types of personal data do we need to undertake these activities?

- Name
- Address
- Eircode
- Phone Number
- Email Address
- Bank account details (where needed)
- In the case of home fire safety checks, we need to know if the applicant is over 65 and if they have a disability.

What will happen if the personal data is not provided?

- We cannot provide the service requested
- In relation to service notices, legal action could be taken if the information is not received

Am I the only source of this personal data?

In some instances, to assist with the delivery of these activities or to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements, personal data is sourced from a third party.

This applies to these activities. Personal data may be sourced from:

- Land Direct
- Eircode Finder

Comhairle Contae Chill Dara

Kildare County Council

- Other Kildare County Council Departments
- Home fire safety checks may be carried out on foot of a referral from a third party, which includes personal data.

Is personal data submitted as part of these activities shared with other organisations?

The Council may, to fulfil statutory or regulatory obligations or in the public interest, from time to time have to share personal data with other organisations or entities (in Ireland or abroad). Where this is required, the Council shall have regard to your rights, to the security and integrity of the data and will minimise the data shared.

Sharing applies to these activities. Data is shared with:

- Data collected for Fire Safety Certificate assessments may be shared with An Bord Pleanála or other Local Authorities, as appropriate.
- Data collected for Fire Safety inspections may be shared with An Garda Síochána and our legal representatives, as appropriate.
- Data collected for issuing Licences may be shared with An Garda Síochána and The Courts Service, as appropriate

Data is not transferred to another country.

How long is my data kept for?

The Local Authority sector operates under a detailed record retention policy which outlines time periods for which your personal data will be retained and what will happen to it after the required retention period has expired.

The National Record Retention Policy for Local Authority Records and the revised schedules are available in the Council's privacy statement:
