

Comhairle Contae Chill Dara Kildare County Council

Data Protection Act 2018 (as amended)

PRIVACY STATEMENT for management of submissions made during public consultation processes in the making of Casual Trading Bye Laws.

Who are we?

Kildare County Council (the Council) is the democratically elected unit of Local Government in County Kildare and is responsible for providing a range of services to meet the economic, social and cultural needs of the people of our County. In order to provide the most effective and targeted services to meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of County Kildare we will be required to collect, process and use certain types of information about people and organisations. Depending on the service being offered, information sought may include 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and may relate to current, past and future service users; past, current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with our staff. In addition, staff may be required, from time to time, to collect, process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements or to carry out functions in the public interest.

Why do we have a Privacy Statement?

This privacy statement has been created to demonstrate the Council's commitment to you that personal data which you may be required to supply to us is;

- Obtained lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner,
- Obtained for only specified, identified and legitimate purposes,
- Processed for purposes which we have identified or purposes compatible with the purposes that we have identified,
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purpose for which it was obtained,
- Is collected and processed accurately and kept up-to-date (where necessary),
- Kept only for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- Processed in a manner that ensures the appropriate security of the personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing.

More detail is available in our Data Protection Policy Statement at <http://kildare.ie/CountyCouncil/DataProtection/> or you can request a hard copy at 045 980 200.

What is the activity referred to in this Privacy Statement?

Management of submissions made during public consultation processes in the making of Casual Trading Bye Laws.

What is the basis for making the processing of this personal data lawful?

Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in Kildare County Council in accordance with Article 6(1) (c) of the General Data Protection Regulation, 2016. Specifically, the lawful basis for this process is Section 6 of the Casual Trading Act 1995.

What types of personal data is required in this process?

Name, address and, where relevant, the name of body or organisation represented in the submission made.

Including third party personal data in submissions:

In cases where a person decides to submit the personal information of another person in their submission, they must:

- Notify that person that they are providing their personal information to the Council and obtain their permission; OR
- Provide that person with a copy of this Privacy Statement;

In addition, they must

- Promptly notify that person of any changes to this Privacy Statement that they are aware of.
- Ensure that, to the best of their knowledge, that the person's personal information is accurate and up to date, and promptly notify the Council when aware that it is incorrect.

Persons making a submission/observation should be aware that comments involving allegations of any kind against a named or otherwise identifiable person or organisation may be viewed as defamatory by the subject of the comments. Persons may be sued directly for any defamatory allegations in any submission/observation and should avoid making such allegations.

In the event of any potentially defamatory allegation giving rise to legal action against it, Kildare County Council will seek indemnity from the person making the allegation.

What happens to my submission?

Submissions for this process may be made either online at the Council's Consultation website <https://consult.kildarecoco.ie/en/> or in writing to Senior Executive Officer, Corporate Services Department, Kildare County Council, Áras Chill Dara, Devoy Park, Naas, Co Kildare. W91 X77F

Persons making submissions should be aware of the Council's Moderation Policy: <https://consult.kildarecoco.ie/en/content/moderation-policy> and the Privacy Policy related to the use of the Consultation Website.

Any submission made will be assigned a reference number and stored in the Council's consultation system to effectively manage the submission process.

The making of bye laws and consideration of submissions in relation to such draft bye-law are functions carried out by the Council's elected members. To facilitate this decision making process a report on any submissions or observations received is prepared for consideration by the elected members and contains a list of the persons or bodies who made submissions or observations, a summary of the issues arising from the submissions, and the response of the Council to those issues, where relevant.

Is personal data submitted as part of this activity shared with other organisations?

The Council may, to fulfil statutory or regulatory obligations or in the public interest, from time to time, have to share submissions with other organisations. Where this is required the Council shall have regard to your rights, to the security and integrity of the data and will minimise the data shared.

Ordinarily the processing of this data is done within the Council and is not transferred to another processor or another country.

How long is my data kept for?

The Local Authority sector operates under a detailed record retention policy which outlines time periods for which your personal data will be retained and what will happen to it after the required retention period has expired. The National Record Retention Policy for Local Authority Records is available: <http://kildare.ie/CountyCouncil/DataProtection/>
