That the council carries out a review of its policies, procedures and practices to ensure that membership and representation on all of its committees and sub-committees has regard to gender balance.

10. Councillors Bill Clear, Michael Coleman, Íde Cussen, Carmel Kelly and Peggy O'Dwyer

That the council support the County Kildare Access Network's (CKAN) objective to consider universal accessibility as part of the application process when applying for a Kildare County Council grant.

11. Councillor Aidan Farrelly

That the council commits to implementing a Youth Homeless Strategy given the number of young people aged 18-24 entering homelessness has increased by 109% since 2014. This Strategy would seek to develop a suite of measures to prevent youth homelessness, as well as the provision of needs-based services provided to those at risk or who have become homeless, LGBTQ+ friendly and include a guarantee that young people who leave state care have a secure home.

12. Councillor Vanessa Liston

That the council outline the lessons learned and new measures put in place to prevent and promptly shut down illegal quarries in Kildare and remediate their environmental impacts.

13. Councillor Evie Sammon

That the condition be written into planning permissions to be granted that no more than 20% of any housing development in County Kildare can be sold to an investment fund/'cuckoo' fund and that all submissions from the council to An Bord Pleanála on Strategic Housing Developments include the same.

14. Councillors Peter Hamilton and Vincent P Martin

That the elected members request Kildare County Council to outline its policies (including emergency response policy) to protect and prioritise the safety, health and well-being of children in emergency accommodation and to give an outline of the current and projected budgetary expenditure allotted in respect of same.

15. Councillors Fintan Brett, Kevin Duffy, Tim Durkan, Ivan Keatley, Tracey O'Dwyer, Brendan Weld and Brendan Wyse

That the council prioritise the taking in charge of estates in 2020 and provide a list of estates that have asked to be taken in charge under a Section 180 request.

16. Councillor Fiona McLoughlin Healy

That the council provide details of its response to the ongoing quarry related issues in Kildare as highlighted in the recent RTÉ Prime Time Investigates report.

17. Councillor Nuala Killeen

That the council provide a report for 2019 on the air and river water quality monitoring in county Kildare detailing the location of the monitoring stations, the frequency of which data is collected and reports on the water and air quality.
