Tairisceana na Comhairle Contae Motions Kildare County Council

12. Councillors Fintan Brett, Joe Neville, Evie Sammon, Kevin Duffy and Mark Stafford.

That the council identify suitable free parking areas in or adjacent to towns & villages in Kildare and advertise them to encourage car sharing by commuters during the current fuel price crisis.

13. Councillors Nuala Killeen, Bill Clear and Aidan Farrelly

That the council establish a specific emergency response plan to deal with environmental emergency pollution events; to take into account working with multiple agencies, controlling the response to the event and communicating with the public and representatives where appropriate.

14. Councillors Tracey O'Dwyer and Peggy O'Dwyer

That Kildare County Council notify elected representatives in the event of potential amendments to, but not limited to, residential, commercial, industrial or any large scale planning permission that has the potential to impact a local community, group, amenity, streetscape, view, connectivity or landscape.

15. Councillors Ciara Galvin and Mark Leigh

That the council commission a study into tackling anti-social behaviour in Kildare - looking at "what works" here and elsewhere - with the view to developing a holistic, evidence-based strategy for County Kildare on the topic.

16. Councillors Angela Feeney and Aoife Breslin

That the council inform the members on how many of its current housing stock are heated using solid fuels and of its plans to upgrade the heating systems in the coming years.

17. Councillor Brendan Wyse

That the council writes to Leitrim County Council requesting a partnership role in the EPA research programme that they have initiated in conjunction with Trinity College Dublin, to identify alternative options to deal with wastewater from individual treatment systems in a manner that is not prejudicial to public health or causing pollution of water bodies, with the aim of making the reclaimed peatland areas of the county available for one-off housing once more.

18. Councillor Suzanne Doyle

That the council suspend work on the current County Development Plan pending the review of the National Development Plan and release of current data from the CSO, given the serious resource issues within local authorities and the clear anomalies and alarming constraints in the current core strategy.

19. Councillor Brendan Weld

That the council's Planning Department reintroduces in person pre-planning meetings with planning applicants and their agents.

20. Councillor Peter Hamilton

That the council provides a status report on progress towards the local authority 1000 public charge point national target for 2024 outlined in the Electric Vehicle Public Charging Point Scheme, including the number installed under the plan to date.

21. Councillor Fiona McLoughlin Healy

That this council supports the calls for a public inquiry into An Bord Pleanála, to include an examination of decisions it has taken in relation to large scale developments in Kildare.

22. Councillor Noel Connolly

That Comhairle Contae Chill Dara urgently establishes a task force to identify the root cause as to why it is taking up to 4 months for email representations from elected representatives to be replied to, particularly but not limited to housing representations. The task force shall provide a report to the members on the root cause or causes, to include a comprehensive plan to address the issue and to introduce KPI's to ensure performance consistently reaches an acceptable level of service.
