5. Motion – Councillor Kevin Byrne
That the council assess the boundary wall on the Dublin Road near The Orchard for safety as there are some loose rocks on the footpath.
6. Motion – Councillor Kevin Byrne
That the council assess the hedgerows in Larkfield Mews Estate, Celbridge, on safety grounds as they are overgrown onto the footpath and present problems when people are using the pay parking facilities.
7. Motion – Councillor Bernard Caldwell
That the council examine the exit from Old Green Lane cottages out on to Easton Road and either lower the wall or introduce some traffic calming to make the exit safe.
8. Motion – Councillor Bernard Caldwell
That the council repair the section of lane way at the bottom of Shillichan Lane, beside the (details provided) location.
9. Motion – Councillor Brendan Young
That the council provides a report to this Municipal District Committee on the council's protocols for Kildare County Council staff being shown hospitality by elected representatives from any political organisation, while those staff are taking part in official professional development activities organised by Kildare County Council.
10. Motion – Councillor Brendan Young
That the council install a cycle lane on the Hazelhatch Road between Shinkeen Road and the pedestrian lights at Primrose Gate Estate; and if a full-width cycle lane cannot be installed that shared-use markings be installed.

11. Motion – Councillor Joe Neville

That the council request the National Transport Authority to review the transition of speeds on the M4 inbound from 120km/hr down to 80km/hr at the Leixlip-Celbridge Junction 5 and as part of the review would it consider a staggered speed reduction including a 100km/hr speed.

12. Motion – Councillor Anthony Larkin

That the council install a flashing digital speed sign on the road from the Celbridge motorway exit to the roundabout at the M4 Business Park.

13. Question - Councillor Kevin Byrne
