These are our library cards. You can join the library using the QR code below or online at kildare.spydus.ie

Please bring proof of ID and address when you come in.

The library staff at the desk are there to help you.

The library has newspapers and magazines that you can read, and comfortable seats to sit in.

The library is quiet most of the time, but sometimes it can be louder and busier.

It's okay to make noise too!

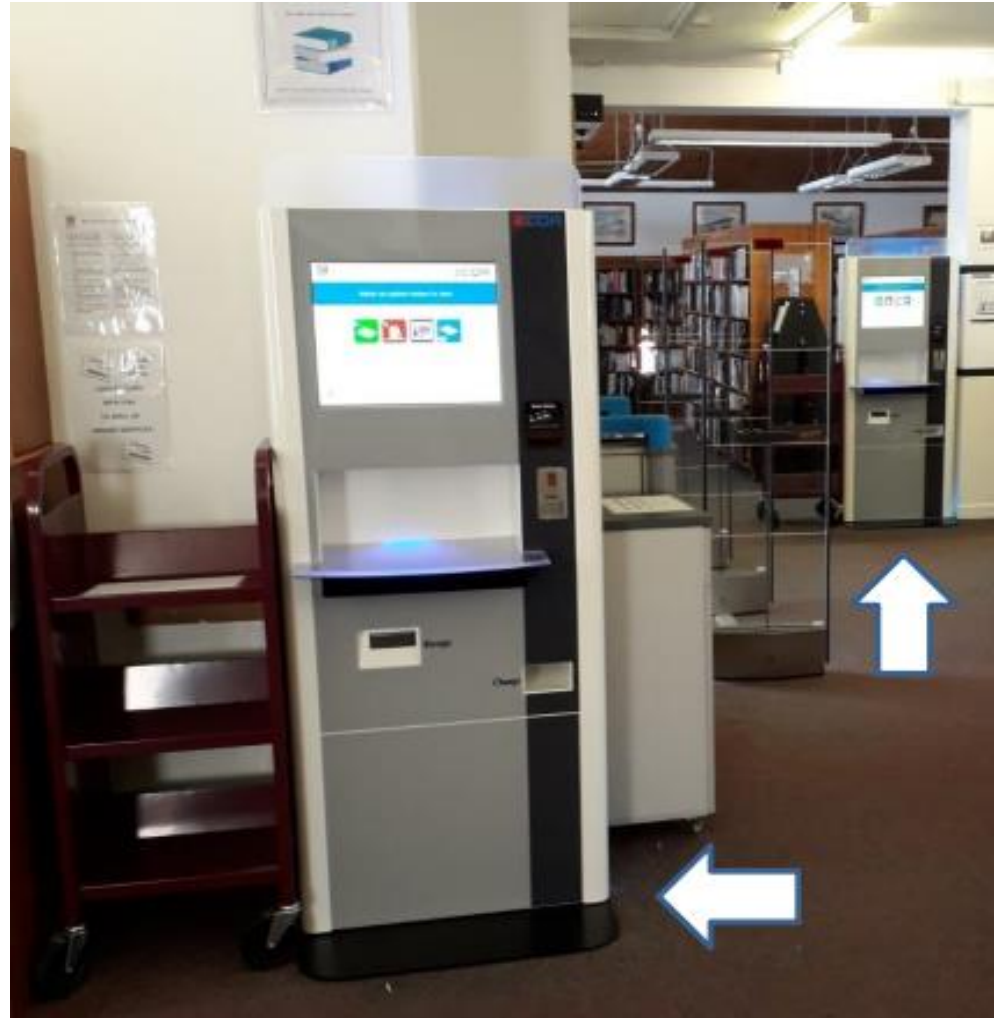

You can borrow DVDs and computer games as well as books at the library.

You can only borrow one computer game at a time.

There are two machines to check out or return books.

Leave books that you have returned on the trolley next to the machine.

You can also return books to our book return outside the Library.

There are tables upstairs where you can study if you are in secondary school or older.

Sometimes there will be events happening in this space. To check if it's free, you can ask one of the library staff.

There is a meeting room which
You can use to work or study.
It can be booked at the desk.

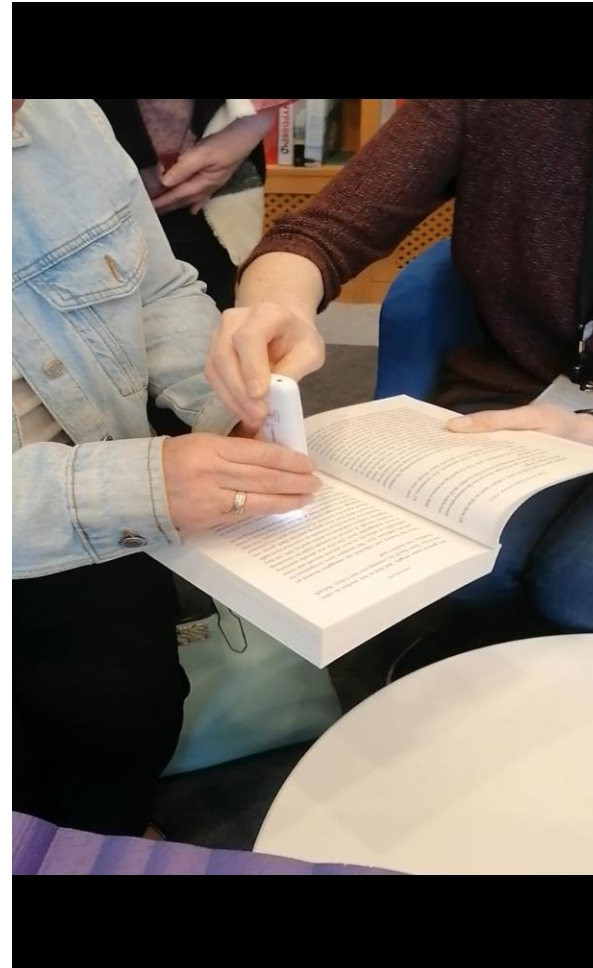

JAM card users
are welcome here.

Please show staff
your card if it makes you feel more comfortable.

We have a reader pen that you can use during your visit.

You can put your name on the waiting list to borrow the reader pen from the library.
