Spirit of Kildare Awards 2027

Brigid | Spiorad Chill Dara
Spirit of Kildare

Introduction

Now in their second year, these awards bring to life the Spirit of Kildare and the legacy of St Brigid, whose influence has had a lasting impact across Kildare, Ireland and the world. These awards celebrate the people and groups who make Kildare a better place to live.

Inspired by the kindness, courage and generosity associated with St Brigid, the awards honour those who bring these values to life, through their dedication to others and their community.

There is also a Special Lifetime Achievement Award which recognises an individual who has made an outstanding contribution in their field, bringing national or international recognition to Kildare through their exceptional achievements.

8. Special Lifetime Achievement Award (Individual only)

1. Contribution to Local Community Life

This award recognises a group or individual whose kindness, care and commitment makes their local community a better place to live. It celebrates those who look out for others, notices when someone needs support and goes the extra mile to help. Whether checking in on a neighbour or bringing people together, they help people of all ages, backgrounds and abilities feel valued, included and part of community life in Kildare.

2. Sports Achievement

This award recognises a local individual or team whose sporting achievements inspire pride across Kildare. It honours dedication, determination and sportsmanship. It celebrates those who excel in their sport at local, regional, provincial, national or international level. It recognises an individual or a team who've made sacrifices and trained long nights and early mornings to reach their potential.

3. Youth Contribution

This award celebrates a young person or group, aged between 16 and 21, who makes a positive difference in their community. It can be through volunteering, leadership or kindness. It's those who are inclusive, generous and compassionate with others. It can be someone who goes above and beyond for a friend or someone or youth group that looks out for others. Parental consent is required for all nominees under the age of 18.

4. Woman In Leadership (Individual only)

This award celebrates a woman who motivates others, brings people together and makes a positive difference through her leadership. Whether in community life, business, or the voluntary sector; this is someone who leads with courage, compassion and determination. It's someone who creates opportunities for others, drives progress and inspires and empowers those around her.

5. Contribution to the Arts

This category celebrates an individual or group who makes an outstanding contribution to the Arts through their creativity, talent and dedication. It could be a local actor, singer, artist, poet or comedian who has exemplified outstanding talent in their field. Or it could be someone or group who brings people in Kildare together through music, dance or drama.

6. Contribution to the Environment, Local Heritage and Biodiversity

This award celebrates those who are making their community a cleaner and greener place to live. It recognises individuals or groups who aim to reduce pollution and litter and promote a circular economy. It recognises local efforts to make a lasting difference whether it's protecting wildlife and restoring natural habitats to preserving and promoting Kildare's rich local heritage. It also honours those who inspire others to care for the environment, support biodiversity and combat climate change.

7. Contribution to Irish Language & Culture

This award recognises an individual or group who makes an outstanding contribution to celebrating, preserving or promoting Irish culture and traditions. From music, dance and storytelling to the Irish language and traditional crafts, it honours those who keep our rich culture alive for future generations. It also includes those who organise the promotion of the Irish language and culture through festival and community events.

8. Special Lifetime Achievement Award (individual only)

This award honours an individual whose lifelong dedication and outstanding achievements bring pride and recognition to Kildare, nationally or internationally. This recognises an individual who has shown consistent excellence, dedication and achievement in their field. It celebrates someone whose commitment, passion and influence inspires others. It's someone who truly embodies the Spirit of Kildare.
